Changing lives with love

May the Lord Himself, who is our source of peace, give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all.

2 Thessalonians 3:16

Dwi'n gweddio y bydd yr
Arglwydd sy'n rhoi heddwch yn gwneud i chi brofi ei heddwch ym mhob sefyllfa. Bydded yr Arglwydd yn agos at bob un ohonoch chi.

2 Thesaloniaid 3:16

Dear

This month's letter is sent to let you know your friends in the Churches of Bro Celynnin are thinking of you and wish you every blessing. The month of November is a time of remembrance, reflection and hope and we share with you these few resources for prayer, personal reflection and worship.

I took this photo of the stunningly beautiful stained glass 'Fire Window' in Manchester Cathedral. The window lights the chapel of the Manchester Regiment. The window had been demolished by a German bomb in 1940 and rebuilt. The window was designed by Margaret Thraherne to commemorate the rebuilding after the blitz. Then in 1996 the window was destroyed by the IRA bomb and Margaret supervised the reconstruction of the window we see in the photo above. The Altar frontal reflects the image of fire shown in the stained glass and also has a phoenix - symbolising renewal of life from ashes and the embroidered words on the frontal are 'In Christ shall all be made alive'.

The 'Fire Window' which replaced the stained glass of the Victorian windows - has both a historical and spiritual significance, being a symbol of remembrance, divine guidance and regeneration of life. In the Memorial Chapel the window is a tribute to lives lost in war - remembrance of sacrifice and destruction; but fire clears the way for renewal, rebirth and peace. The imagery of fire is seen in our Bible - for example in the 'Burning bush' when Moses recognises the presence of the Divine, God's presence in the fire, and in the pillar of fire that guided the Israelites through the wilderness - indicating God's presence guiding his people through dark times.

Coffee after

At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them. We will remember them.

Pan elo'r haul i lawr
ac ar wawr y bore, ni
au cofiwn hwy. Ni au cofiwn hwy.

The last Sunday in November is the beginning of Advent, the church season preparing for the coming of Jesus Christ. The following hymn is based on the words of Mary - the words she spoke in praise on hearing the announcement from the angel Gabriel that she would have a child - the words we know in our Church services as the Magnificat.

1. Tell out, my soul, the greatness
of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings, give my spirit voice; tender to me the promise of his word;
in God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

2. Tell out, my soul, the greatness
of his name!
Make known his might, the
deeds his arm has done;
his mercy sure, from age to age
the same; his holy name, the Lord, the mighty One.

1. O f'enaidd, cân , mawrha yr
Arglwydd Dduw,
Bydd lawen ynddo, dy Waredwr
yw,
Y nerthol lôr , wnaeth bethau
mawr i Mair,
Am iddi gredu yn ei santaidd air.

2. O oes i oes, i'r rhai a'i hofnant ef,
Trugaredd Duw sy'n ddinacâd
o'r nef;
Ei gadarn fraich sy'n dymchwel
beilchion byd,
Dyrchafu'r gwylaidd y mae ef o
hyd.

3. Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by.
Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight,
the hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

4. Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word!
Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure.
Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord to children's children and for evermore!

Timothy Dudley-Smith

3. Mae'n porthi'n hael newynog rai o'i stôr,
Ond troi'r goludog wna heb ddim o'i ddôr;
A chofio mae ei addewidion mawr
l'n tadau ac i ninnau'r plant yn awr.

4. O f'enaïd, cân, i Dduw yn ôl ei air,
Bydd gaeth i'r Arglwydd, gwyn dy fyd fel Mair, Mawrha y Tad a'r Mab yn ddiwahân, Ac arnat beunydd doed yr Ysbryd Glân.

Timothy Dudley-Smith...Addas.

We finish our letter with a prayer of hope and peace. The Universal Prayer for Peace/Gweddi dros Hedddwch yn y byd - used daily by people of all faiths (from St Asaph Diocesan Book of Prayers for peace).

Loving God,
Lead us from death to life, from falsehood to truth.
Lead us from despair to hope, from fear to trust.
Lead us from hate to love, from war to peace.
Let peace fill our heart, our world, our universe. Amen

Dduw cariadus, Arwain ni o farwolaeth i fywyd, o anwiredd a chelwydd at y gwirionedd.
Arwain ni o anobaith i obaith, oddiwrth ofn i ymddiriedaeth.
Arwain ni o gasineb i gariad, o ryfel i heddwch. Boed i dangnefedd lenwi ein calonnau, ein byd, a'n cyfanfyd. Amen

Love and God bless, from, Ros x
